

Famous Quotes

Nothing can stop the man with the right mental attitude from achieving his goal; nothing on earth can help the man with the wrong mental attitude.

Thomas Jefferson

When one door of happiness closes, another opens, but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one that has been opened for us.

Helen Keller

First say to yourself what you would be; and then do what you have to do.

Epictetus

The thing that is really hard, and really amazing, is giving up on being perfect and beginning the work of becoming yourself.

Anna Quindlen

Try not to become a man of success, but a man of value.

Albert Einstein

To enjoy good health, to bring true happiness to one's family, to bring peace to all, one must first discipline and control one's own mind. If a man can control his mind he can find the way to Enlightenment, and all wisdom and virtue will naturally come to him.

Buddha

You know it's love when all you want is that person to be happy, even if you're not part of their happiness.

Julia Roberts

Happiness depends more on the inward disposition of mind than on outward circumstances.

Benjamin Franklin

When you find peace within yourself, you become the kind of person who can live at peace with others.

Peace Pilgrim

How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.

Anne Frank

I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.

Maya Angelou

The minute you settle for less than you deserve, you get even less than you settled for.

Maureen Dowd

Every great dream begins with a dreamer. Always remember, you have within you the strength, the patience, and the passion to reach for the stars to change the world.

Harriet Tubman

In any moment of decision, the best thing you can do is the right thing, the next best thing is the wrong thing, and the worst thing you can do is nothing.

Theodore Roosevelt
