

Turn Questions into Reflections

1. Why don't you want to work on some of those goals we've talked about?

2. To school counselor: "Won't you let me work with that student, can't you see it would be most helpful to that family if we collaborated and worked together?"

3. Are you worried about people knowing about your mental health issues?

4. Are you even going to try?

5. Don't you get tired of fighting with your mom?

6. I thought we made some progress yesterday, why did you turn around and get stoned before you came to school today?

7. How do you plan to stay clean if have no desire to get treatment?

8. What were you thinking trying to sell vaping supplies and marijuana on campus?

9. To school staff/admin: "Don't you want to learn some of the MI skills so we can better navigate some of the complex trauma and behaviors of our students?"

10. Do you understand this is how we have to proceed with our threat assessment process?
