Strategic Reflections

Juvenile Justice

"My mom didn't wake me up. I didn't know I was supposed to be there Saturday. You're not going to violate me are you? I don't want those charges on my record."

"You are not going to tell Jared that I told you he skipped school and smelled like pot are you? His dad and I want to do the right thing, but we are so tired of the screaming matches."

"What if I don't do it? What if I just say 'Screw it, you can put me in jail'? Are you just gonna lock me away until the end of probation? I don't think you can do that. How would I go to school if I was locked up? I bet my mom could sue you if you did that."

*"I hate that school… all the kids are stuck up and the teachers just f*ck with me to piss me off. I'm not going there anymore, I'll just get my GED and get the f*ck out of here. You can't violate me if I get my GED."*
