

Vision: Caring for individuals at all stages of Alzheimer's disease and related dementia.

- We value relationships. We recognize and honor the difficulties you may face.
- We value personhood. We honor the value of each person. We see you. You are not a diagnosis.
- We value autonomy, helping you your loved ones to navigate your journey.
- We value holistic approaches.
- We value your empowerment and taking the most control over the course of your experience with dementia.
- We value creativity, believing that every person has the ability to express their inner artist.
